

Determining a Student's Employment Classification in Summer

The table below will assist you in determining your worker's classification. The table below will assist you in determining your worker's classification.

		No additional paperwork is needed for continuing student workers.	He or she is considered a student worker temp for summer only. Student worker temps may work, up to, 40 hours per week.
For Summer Term Only New SMU Students matriculated for the upcoming fall term and not enrolled in classes for summer. Applies to undergraduate or graduate students.	Paid via SMU Payroll with a Student Worker Hire/Rehire Form and selected Student Worker Temp for summer only (based on Fall status)	New student workers will complete Student Worker Employment Packet	He or she is considered a student worker temp for summer only. Student worker temps may work, up to, 40 hours per week.

