If you have suggestions for what we should include in future communications, please send your ideas to this email address. Previous newsletters are available here.

Today's update falls into three categories: 1) Fall 2022, 2) Road to R1: Research and Scholarly/Creative Excellence, and 3) News and Noteworthy.

To honor the Thanksgiving Holiday, there will not be a newsletter next week, but we will resume distribution the following week and for the remainder of the fall 2022 semester.

Preparing for the Holiday Season: A Reminder About Supports in place to Manage Stress

- Dr. Evelyn L. Parker (2021 recipient)
- Bishop Ruben Saenz Jr. (2022 recipient)

There is, perhaps, no more important measure for a school than the impact its alumni have on the world. I was grateful for the opportunity to join Dean Craig Hill and the Perkins community this week to celebrate excellence in these four truly distinguished Perkins alumni and to recognize them for their living out SMU's call to be world changers.

Sincerely,
